Animas
<http://www.animas.com>

At Animas, we work closely with our fellow Johnson & Johnson companies, as well as other partners, toward what we think is a very important goal: finding ways to make diabetes exceedingly manageable in every way. As you get to know us, we think you'll find that we meet that goal with insulin delivery products like our OneTouch Ping glucose management system and the inset family of all-in-one infusion sets, which work with any pump. We hope you'll check them out. Especially because they come with something we feel passionate about: dedicated Animas support.
